Family news

After the Maine meeting, we were tickled to stop in Vermont to visit with Randy’s older brother, Lyle Starr, and his wife Carolyn. Laughter and reminiscing—good therapy! The New York trip provided opportunity to visit our older daughter, Heidi, and her husband, Dan Butler. More laughter and reminiscing! What a great time!

Father’s Day Sunday found us in New York with Pastor John Kuhn and the Maranatha Baptist Church family. Dr. Starr challenged them on “The Father of the Year.” Sweet fellowship!

Northeast Blessings Abound!

Dr. Starr kicked off a week of revival services at Mt. Zion, our sending church (Pastor Chris Starr) in early May on their annual Friend Day. Altars were packed on Sunday night with folks doing business with God.

We are grateful for a meeting the end of May at a supporting church, Auburn Baptist Church in Maine, (Pastor Clint Robinson). It was a reunion of sorts as he trained for ministry in our Bible Institute years ago. We were able to present the first 3 years of our ministry. We thank God for many decisions made.

Early June took us to Long Hill Baptist Church in Trumbull, CT, with Pastor Robert Hammond for a missions/evangelism conference. We saw hearts rekindled for that thing nearest our Lord’s heart—souls. We also learned more about New England culture from the dear saints there.

Big Red’s Corner

“These owners of mine never cease to amaze me. They use me for everything - a clothes closet (clean & dirty), a storage space with books and those pesky horns that keep falling over bruising my sides, a food pantry, and even a picnic table. (see pic) Add to that other things given to them along the way. And sometimes, Mrs. Lucy stops at a thrift store to throw something else in! She even forgot Mr. Lucy’s dress pants at the meeting in Maine. I actually heard her say, ‘Well, it doesn’t matter as you are standing behind the pulpit and no one will ever know!’”
Moral of the story: “You get to know who people really are when you travel with them!”
