

Evangelist Randy Starr and his wife, Shirley, have meant much to me over the years. I have known them since the mid 1980's. God has used Brother Starr to influence my life in many ways. As my youth Pastor in Ohio and as a friend and counsellor in Pennsylvania, his dedication to God and His Word have made a tremendous impact on me. Brother Starr is a talented musician, a dedicated Father/Grandfather, a loving husband, a brilliant teacher, an intellectual author, and a powerful preacher. I heartily recommend him as an evangelist that will not only inspire your people, but will help them grow closer to the Lord Jesus. In this world of ever-changing doctrinal stands, I have found Brother Starr's steadfast faith a breath of fresh air.
